SPRING DAYS ARE IDEAL FOR OLD POINT TOURISTS

Visitors to Famous Virginia Resort Have Been Favored With Many Attractions.

VEROPLANING PROVES POPULAR

Have You Been Up?" Is Most Oft-Repeated Question of Day, and Many Society Women Have Experienced the Thrill of Flying.

ISpecial to The Times-Dispatch.!
OLD POINT COMFORT, VA., March
-These spring days of March have been ideal, and tourists have been pending nearly all their time in the open. Guests at the Chamberlin, rathered on the verandas or in the sun parlors, watch daily with interest the graceful flights of the hydroplanes and aeroplanes flying over historic Fortress Monroe and Hampton Roads.
Though amid dreamy and quiet surroundings, their conversations most often are discussions of modern war defenses, the ancient ramparts of the (Special to The Times-Dispatch) defenses, the ancient ramparts of the fort and the famous battle of the Mer-

The new super-Dreadnought Penn-Vivania, on leaving and returning om her trial trip, and the United tates cruiser Tennessee, which will cave next week with Secretary McAdoo and party for South America, attracted such attention while anchored off the Aviator Walter Lees carries a fair passenger in his hydroplane nearly every day, and "have you been up?" is an oft-repeated question of the day at Old Point. Miss Mary Armsby, of San Francisco, and Miss Catherine Pittman, of Detroit, cousins, who have been spending several weeks with Dr. and Mrs. James Kennedy Corss, took long and high flights this week. Miss Armsby left on Wednesday for New York to visit her college classmate. Miss Marion Cleveland, daughter of former President Grover Cleveland.

Noticeable this week was the val of many sojourners who h tival of many sojourners who have spent the spring season here for a number of years. Mr. and Mrs. William Bond and Miss Gladys Bond, of chicago, are finding many old friends of other seasons. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Brigham, who have in their party Mrs. T. H. Mitchell and Mrs. J. C. Anderson, of Toledo, have come for their annual visit, as also have Dr. and Mrs. C. V. Carrington, Mrs. T. M. Butherfoord, of Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Sherlock, of Cincinnati; Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Roosen, of Minneapolis; C. van Vorhis and his mother, Mrs. J. an Vorhis, of Rochester.

Mrs. P. M. Price, of Paris, enteriained at bridge on Tuesday afternoon in the rose room of the Chamberlin for Miss M. C. Fox, of Philadelphia, a sister of John Fox, Jr., the author,
Among other guests were Mrs Richard Furnival, of Philadelphia: Mrs. E. Rust
Smith, Washington: Mrs. Mildred B.
Therce, Mrs. George Knowlton, of North Upton, Mass.
Mrs. Arthur Murray's guests for tea densant on Monday afternoon in the

Mrs. Arthur Murray's guests for tead dansant on Monday afternoon in the paim garden included Mrs. Magroder, Mrs. Ord Preston, of Washington, Cap-tain S. G. Shartle, U. S. A., and Mrs. Scartle, who recently returned from

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Forbes, of New ork, are the guests of Major G. A. ugent, U. S. A., and Mrs. Nugent in post

J. H. Townthend came down on Suny from New York to join his sister, s. Alfred L. White, who is here with D. W. Cusack.

Miss E. W. Cusack.

Mrs. George E. Dickinson, of Chatenay, Irvington-on-Hudson, has joined to have you her mother, Mrs. A. D. Chahdor, who has been taking the "cure" at the Monroe ord Preston joined Mrs. Preston and her mother, Mrs. Murray, for the weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Preston have returned to their home in Washington. St. George Bryan, of Richmond, joined Mrs. Bryan and children here for a few days' visit this week.

Miss Stem and Miss Boughner, of Baltimore, have been the guests of Lieutenant and Mrs. Gildart, at Fortlesses, Monroe.

Monroe of No duty. How is Miss Page bearing already been told by Mrs. Page and the man MacPherson. "I do not think it will be necessary." said Langdon, but now his tone was grave with a hint of wistfulness.

Another day of the trial was begunded the day before, so fraught with terrible revelations, it was Mrs. Page and the man MacPherson. "I do not think it will be necessary." said lis Honor drily, looking interrogatively towards Langdon, and the latter shook his head.

"Not at all," he said. "On the contrary, we will skip the story, but I have one or two questions to ask regarding it. At the time of the telling, where were you?"

Baltimore, have been the guests of Lieutenant and Mrs. Gildart, at Forters Monroe.

Among the late arrivals are Mr and Mrs. C. B. Buchanan, Richmond, David Dunlop, Petersburg; Mrs. W. H. Alger, "Said Langdon gently, "but I must ask you to tell the court the events that directly followed upon the death of your husband."

"I—I'm afraid that what happened directly afterward is not very clear to more; Mrs. E. F. Busket, Stevenson, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. Edward DeWitt Englewood; Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Hood, Mrs. George M. Neall and Miss Margaret A. Neall, Mr. and Mrs. H. Mc-Claskey, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. John Dicky, Henry L. French, Philadelphia; F. C. Murdock Weaver H. Rogers, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. Thomas Withers, Mrs. R. R. Shepard, Seranton; Rev. and Mrs. A. S. Burke and Miss Burke, Logewood; Mrs. Harvey L. French and Mr. Paul Sterlin, of Wilkes-Barre.

"I have only a few questions, Mrs. It. At the twere you?"

(To Be (To

"What did you do upon reading the hote?"

I went and got my hat and cloak to go to her, but David Pollock drove up in his automobile just as I was going those dancing were Misses Margaret MacFarland, Annabelle Thompson, Gay Lewis, Barbara Lewis, Kitty Winston, Mildrew Newton, Virginia Haw, Elise Cardwell, Florence Hunter, Salle Woolfolk, Mary Hutchinson, Pearl Collins, Alice Lacy, Bland Hobson, Jo Winston, Virginia Lacy, Mary Newton, Edna Balley, Katherine Marsh, Eva Baker, Polly Bagby, Lucy Crump Taylor, Mesdames R. C. Taylor, E. B. Winston, Mindrey R. C. Taylor, E. B. Winston, Cardwell, Florence Hunter, Salle Woolfolk, Mary Hutchinson, Pearl Collins, Alice Lacy, Bland Hobson, Jo Winston, Circle Marsh, Eva Baker, Polly Bagby, Lucy Crump Taylor, Mesdames R. C. Taylor, E. B. Winston, Cardwell, Florence Hunter, Salle Woolfolk, Mary Hutchinson, Pearl Collins, Alice Lacy, Bland Hobson, Jo Winston, Wirginia Lacy, Mary Newton, Edna Balley, Katherine Marsh, Eva Baker, Polly Bagby, Lucy Crump Taylor, Mesdames R. C. Taylor, E. B. Winston, Middrey Newton, Virginia Lacy, Mary Newton, Edna Balley, Katherine Marsh, Eva Baker, Polly Bagby, Lucy Crump Taylor, Mesdames R. C. Taylor, E. B. Winston, Wiltse Willington, Wiltse Willington, Middrey upon reading the ballots, and those elected were C. V. Brockes, Lewis Johnson, Wiltse Willington, Wiltse Willington, Middrey upon reading the ballots, and those elected were C. V. Brockes, Lewis Johnson, Wiltse Willington, Middrey upon reading the ballots, and those elected were C. V. Brockes, Lewis Johnson, Wiltse Willington, Middrey upon reading the ballots, and those elected were C. V. Brockes, Lewis Johnson, Wiltse Willington, Middrey upon reading the ballots, and those elected were C. V. Brockes, Lewis Johnson, Wiltse Willington, Middrey upon reading the ballots, and those elected were C. V. Brockes, Lewis Johnson, Wiltse Willington, Policy and Colone R. S. Barbour left to-day for Richmond.

J. T. Lacy is visiting his father, Senator J. T. Lacy, in Richmond.

J. T. Lacy is visiting h asked him to take me to the doctor's asked him to take me to the doctor's in his car. He said he would if I bailey, Katherine Marsh, Eva Baker, Polly Bagby, Lucy Crump Taylor, Mesdames R. C. Taylor, F. B. Winston, A. Usinger, Messrs. Clarence Taylor, John Broome, Edmund Woolfolk, Dalton Taylor, Fred Hood, Boxley Vaughan, Jourdon Woolfolk, Vincent Ancell, Howard Taylor, Bertrand Timberlake, Frank Cox, Kelth Taylor, Guy Ancell, Marcellus Baker, George Haw, Andrew Woolfolk, Fred Baker, Waverly Collins, impediately, stop Langdon's interfer. Woolfolk, Fred Baker, Waverly Collins, immediately stop Langdon's interfer-cardwell Taylor, Percy Omohundro, ence.' I told him that my poor child keeper Woolfolk, George Christian, Pat had suffered enough; that I would not King, Adolphus Usinger, Dixie Collins, Guilbert Hunt. Chaperons, Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Ansell, W. F. Lewis, Edmund Winston, Mrs. F. B. Winston, John Woolfolk, E. K. Taylor, W. G.

metion on Thursday in honor of Mrs. 13. Winston, of Minneapolls, who is iting her. After the game dainty reshments were served. Those playwere Mesdames W. G. Christian, A. inger, W. B. Newton, R. C. Taylor, Wortham Peatross, Misses Mary Haw, Sallie Taylor, Eva Baker, Elise Card-well, Sallie Woolfolk, Mary Taylor, Virginia Haw.

Mrs. Nannie Ballard has returned to

Mr. and Mrs. Caskie Burch and family spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Lewis at "Courtland."

The Strange Case of Mary Page

BY PREDERICK LEWIS. "What Happened to Mary"
Pictures by Essanay. Copyright, 1915, by McClure Publications.
Shown at the Victor Theater.

SYNOPSIS.

SYNOPSIS.

Mary Page, actress, is accused of the murder of David Pollock, and is defended by her lover. Philip Langdon. Pollock was detected by her lover. Philip Langdon Pollock was for Langdon. At Mary's trial she admits she had the revolver. Her mad testiles that the revolver. Her mad testiles that Mary threatened Pollock with it previously, and Mary's leading man Implicates Langdon. How Mary disappeared from the lafefase to introduce testimony. Mary's cane of the crime is a mystery. Brandon telik of a strange hand print he saw on the lafefase to introduce testimony. Mary's aboulder. It is now the turn of the lafefase to introduce testimony. Mary's aboulder testimos that the night Mary was born her husband, in a drunken fit, selzed beave the print of his fingers. Langdon and hounces that he will prove Mary was suffering from temporary insanity when she shot grown temporary insanity when she shot at the might Mary was suffering from temporary insanity when she shot at the might Mary was suffering from temporary insanity when she shot at the might Mary was suffering from temporary insanity when she shot at all man, but the dignary and rushed from the house, quite intaken that Mary had the same mark on her shoulder at times. She tells how Mary had rushed from the house, quite intaken that Mary had the same mark and to cappained that something was burning her shoulder. Mary shows the jury a long sear on her head, caused by a blow from her father. MacPherson testifies to having found ner in the snow, and that complained that something was burning found ner in the snow, and that the might had been the shoulder. Mary shows the jury a long sear on her head, caused by a blow from her father. MacPherson testifies to having found ner in the snow, and that the found a most calling for him to come of great height as he took his right hand to take the oath.

"Dr. Foster, you specialize in discasses of the brain, do you not?"

"I do. In both mental and nervous like city?"

"Have you a sanatorium just outside this city?"

"I have you ever seen the defendant before?"

"Have you ever seen the defendant before?"

"I have seen Miss Page on several occasions. The first time was when I ittle frown of anxiety etched two fine working the for some years, drive up with a girl sight of the tall, trimly clad woman beside him in the motor. She seemed sight of the destern smile of relief to be asleep or only partially conscious.

"I have."

"Have you ever seen the defendant war sufferers of Europe.

The big formal event for the dancing sets next week will be the carnival ball given by the management of the Manor Tuesday night. Many have sent to New York for appropriate costumes for the ball, which will carry out the Mardi Gras spirit.

The tea dance on Wednesday brought Miss talking to the doctor a smile of relief to be asleep or only partially conscious.

his hand as if angry, he flung it aside and got into his motor. As soon as he was out of sight I ran out and picked up the note. It—it was addressed to me, and it said: I am taking Mary to Dr. Foster's sanatorium outside the city. She bears up bravely under the news of her father's death. Will call is lying on the bed in my own room and hearing our doctor say, 'It's all too much for her. I wish to God she had some relatives or someone to help

nity of his carriage and the way he "Ermine" by an all-star Asheville so-

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
SOUTH BOSTON, VA., March 4.—A literary club, known as the Thursday
Study Club, has recently been formed

Study Club, has recently been formed among the women of this city, and on last Thursday, Mrs. W. H. Moseley was hostess to the club at her home on Upper Main Street. It was a Dickens afternoon, and several interesting papers were read from this novelist's works. Mrs. A. P. Gilbert is president of the club. The next meeting will be with Miss Susie Willingham.

Four new deacons were elected at a congregational meeting held after service. congregational meeting held after ser-vices at the Presbyterian Church here on last Sunday. Voting was done by ballots, and those elected were C. V.

Will then explain all."

had suffered enough; that I would not in any way interfere in the future. In fact, I-I blamed him for the awful tragedy of the night before. It seemed to me that but for him my daughter would be safe and well and my hus-Mrs. F. B. Winston entertained at band living, and I told him so. He section on Thursday in honor of Mrs. said that if I would not deal with Langdon, he would, and that he would expect Mary to keep her word to him. Then he left. At the gate he met a boy coming in with a note, and after some talk, he gave the boy some money and took the note himself. He tore it open and read it; then, crumpling it in

Rev. W. B. Lee, of Gloucester, visited bis son, Rev. W. B. Lee, Jr., here the first of the week. NEW ABSORPTION METHOD

Mr. and Mrs. Caskie Burch and family spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Lewis at "Courtland."

Mrs. C. P. Cardwell has returned home from Stafford.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Gwathmey, of Richmond, were in Hanover on Saturday.

Barton Woolfolk left on Saturday for Washington, D. C., where he has accepted a position.

If you suffer from bleeding, itching, blind or protruding Piles, send me your address, and I will tell you how to cure yourself at home by the new absorption treatment; and will also send some of this home treatment free for trial, with references from your own locality, if requested. Users report immediate relief and speedy cures. Send no money, but tell others of this offer. Write to-day to Mrs. M. Summers, Box P, Notre Dame, Ind.—Advertisement.

later. Philip.' The next I remember Teas, Dances and Informal Parties for Afternoon and Evening Are Legion.

Performances of Play-Mrs. Vanderbilt Comes Down From Washington to Occupy Box.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., March 4 .- Asheville society and members of the various guest colonies have been unusually busy during the past week, which has been one of the gayest of the late winfame was a byword all over the world. ter season. Teas, dances and informal Kings of Wall Street owed their grip parties for the afternoon and evening upon affairs to his care when mental have been legion, with Mrs. Woodcock's reception at her new home in Grove Park, the two presentations of "Ermine" by an all-star Asheville soclety cast, for the benefit of the Eu-ropean war suffers, and the dinner take up the problem of providing dance at Grove Park Inn to-night as "Have you a sanatorium just outside ington to occupy it. The play was prefing the country it. The play was prefing the country it. The play was presented by Asheville society people, and scored a wonderful hit, besides reallzing a large amount of money for the war uniforers of burgons.

replaced the scowl. He came forward She opened her eyes as I came up, and out a large crowd, many parties being entertained. The largest party of the day was that given by Mrs. Fred L.

The exodus from the far South has begun, and all the hotels are reporting an unusually large number of arrivals.

Many of the newcomers are golfers, here for a few weeks of play on the splendid course of the Asheville Country Club before try Club before returning to the North and East.

William Swift, Mrs. Louis F Swift and maid, and Louis F. Swift, Jr., of Chicago, are back at Asheville a short visit.

Mrs. H. S. Firestone, Harvey S. Firestone, Jr., and Russell A. Firestone, of Akron, O., have returned for the early spring season.
Mr. and Mrs. Howard L. Goodhart, of New York, have arrived.

W. J. Brokaw, of New York, is among the recent arrivals.
Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lupton and Mrs.
M. B. Ochs, of Chattanooga, Tenn., are

Among other arrivals are Mr. and Among other arrivals are Mr. and Mrs. James Maynard. Jr., of Knoxville, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hargrave, Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Sininbaugh, of Aurora, Ill.; Mrs. W. J. Burns and Mrs. Randall Borough, of New York; Aunray Harwell, of New York; Aunray Harwell, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Martin, of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Saenger Martin, of Sheiburne, Vt.; Mr. and Mrs. Harry New, of Cleveland, O.; Mrs. M. E. Bartlett, and Miss H. Bartlett, of Vermeie "The patient is doing splendidly," she answered, with a smile.

"The patient is doing splendidly," she answered, with a smile.

"Thank poodness you were able to both of his. "It means so much to us to have you, and yet under the circumstances I didn't like to insist, or call the law to my aid How is the recollection to patient?"

New, of Cleveland, O.; Mrs. M. E. Bartlett, and Miss H. Bartlett, and Miss H. Bartlett, and Miss Elsle Robinson, of New York, N. M.; Mrs. Isaac R. Robinson and Miss Elsle Robinson, of New York, N. M.; Mrs. Isaac R. Robinson and Miss Elsle Robinson, of New York, N. M.; Mrs. Isaac R. Robinson and Miss Elsle Robinson, of New York, N. M.; Mrs. Isaac R. her mother, Mrs. A. D. Chandor, who comstances I high the to my aid. How is the has been taking the "cure" at the half the law to my aid. How is the chamberlin.

Mrs. F. T. Nesta, of Washington, has been spending the past two weeks. With friends in the Fort with friends in the Fort.

Miss Gill, of Washington, is the guest. That I should have come anyway, duty of Captain and Mrs. Peace, of Fortress or no duty. How is Miss Page beating up."

told me briefly of Miss Page's attack of manness, and the incidents that had led up to it. Do you wish me to retirate the story in detail? he saked, turning toward the judge. "It is subject to manness, and the incidents that had led up to it. Do you wish me to retirate the story in detail?" he asked, turning toward the judge. "It is subject to find the high port, Conn.; Mrs. Robert S. Hincks, of Bridgeport, Conn.; Mrs. Stiles C. Goodsell, of Bridgeport, Conn.; Mrs. S

FARMVILLE NORMAL

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FARMVILLE, VA., March 4.—Miss Hettie Jane Dunaway, assisted by Miss Alice Frotin, musfeal director, presented "Just Plain Judy," an adaptation from "Daddy Long Legs," in the normal school auditorium on Tuesday evening. Miss Dunaway was received even more enthusiastically than when she visited Farmville two years ago.
An elaborate pageant will be pre-

"ERMINIE" TWICE PRESENTED

Woman's Christian Association, celebrating the jubilee year of this organization. The pageant is under the direction of Miss Conover, Young Woman's Christian Association, celebrating the jubilee year of this organization. The pageant is under the direction of Miss Conover, Young Woman's Christian Association, celebrating the jubilee year of this organization. The pageant is under the direction of Miss Conover, Young Woman's Christian Association, celebration of Miss Conover, Young Woman's Christian Association of Miss Conover, Young Woman's Chri man's Christian Association secretary.
Miss Helen Thomas, educational secretary of the national board, its spending called to San France several days here in furtherance of the Young Woman's Christian Association

Miss Fannie W. Dunn, of the Department of Education, is planning to con-duct the grammar-grade and rural-school department of the Congressional District Teachers' Association, which meets in Keysville at an early date. Professor S. P. Duke, head of the Department of education, accepted an invitation to address the Patrons' the training school met in the juvenile and Mrs. R. D. Apperson, of Charlottes-library on Wednesday afternoon to ville, have returned to their homes take up the problem of providing larger library facilities for the children.

Mrs. Charles L. Mosby, of Bedford, and Mrs. R. D. Apperson, of Charlottes-take up the problem of providing after a visit here with Dr. and Mrs. John W. Dillard.

the more formal occasions.

"I do. In both mental and nervous lis."

"Have you a sanatorium just outside"

"Have you a sanatorium just outside"

"A dramatization of the Bible story of Queen Esther was given in the seembly on Friday. The production was lington to occupy it. The play was prethe music from the oratoria by Handel.

LYNCHBURG

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] LYNCHBURG, VA., March 4.—Miss-Mamie Spencer, who has been visiting in Richmond, has returned to her home in Lynchburg.

Wilcox Brightwell and little son, of Albemaric County, visited here this

Model Hats

$5 to $25

the Norfolk and Western Railway, is at work again after being ill for a week with the grip.

Mrs. Mary Sue Davis has returned from an extended stay in Richmond.

Rev. and Mrs. Oscar E. Sams have returned from Harrisonburg, where they spent several days with former friends, Mr. Sams having been for several years pastor of the Harrisonburg Baptist Church.

Mrs. W. C. N. Ramiolph, Jr., weat

Mrs. W. C. N. Randolph, Jr., went on Wednesday to Lancaster, Pa., to spend several weeks with her mother, Mrs. John C. Hager, who yesterday celebrated the eighty-fourth anniversary of her birth.

a visit with friends in New Jersey and Warminster, Md.

Miss Gladys Wilkins is visiting relative at Kenbridge.

Mrs. Charles L. Mosby, of Bedford, and Mrs. R. D. Apperson, of Charlottes ville, have returned to their homes after a visit here with Dr. and Mrs. at the result was always to lose weight, or, if did, I lost my health among the control of the recommendation of the recommendation of the recommendation of the result was always to be a visit here with Dr. and Mrs.

pa, Fla.

Mrs. R. G. Horton is visiting relatives in Dallas, Texas.

Miss Emmie Norvell Wills is visit
Miss Emmie Norvell Wills is visiting in Kansas City, Mo.

Mrs. G. R. King, who has been visit-

Mrs. G. R. King, who has been visit-ing her daughter at the Randolph-Macon Woman's College, has returned to her home in New Orleans. Miss Agnes Johnson, of Bon Air, spent a portion of the week in Lynch-

Can Become Slender

Mme. Blanche Arral, Noted Opera Singer, Quickly Hakes Off 34 Pounds by Drinking Tea.

Miss Jeanie Heald has returned from a visit in Baltimore.

Mrs. Mary Evans Dillard has been called to San Francisco, Cal., by the serious illness of her uncle, Clement J. MacJair.

Mrs. W. B. Montgomery, Miss Maggie Vates have gone to New York City for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Burford have gone to Atlanta.

Miss Pauline V. Long has gone for a visit with friends in New Jersey and Warminster, Md.

Miss Gladys Wilkins is visiting relative at Kenbridge.

Mrs. Charles I. Moshy, of Redford Bassage and other weak-gone to the strength.

Miss Gladys Wilkins is visiting relative at Kenbridge.

For those who cannot brew it at he

WARNING

Mms. Arral wishes to state that she is not connected with any firm advertising "Javanese Obesity Tea." The use of her name or literature and testimonials in such connection is without authority. She advises all who are interested in obtaining the true product to write to Arral's Tika Tea Co.

best. Prices the lowest, considering qual-

107 East Broad

Velour Checked Coats, handsomely lined with peau de cygne in contrasting colors, in swinging loose model or in fitted style, with full flare skirt and new pelerine collar.

Sport Coats, with new leather trimmings,

White Chinchilla Coats, in plain or block

Tailored and Utility Coats from $15.00 to pattern effect; trimmed with black and con-smart loose or belted models.

trasting colors

107 E. Broad St.

A Comprehensive Showing of

New Suits at $29.75 & $35

A splendid assortment of pri cal and dressy models.

Taffeta Silk

Gabardines

Velour Checks Shopard Checks

MATERIALS

Serge Combination Effects Poiret Twills

COLORS

Rookle Midnight Blue

Belgian Blue Navy Blue London Smoke

universal cleaner for all parts of the automobile-tonneau, top, cushions, brass and nickel trimmings. 3 lb. Cans

Auto

(To Be Continued To-Morrow.) SOUTH BOSTON

25c when other preparations fail. Equally good for the hands. Ideal for cleaning up after making repairs on the road. Does not require water—just apply a small amount and rub freely until it lathers, then wipe off with waste.

All good dealers sell "Hike Dirt." Ask for it by name.